7th GRADE

I think being in EHS is great. Even though you get bumped, shoved, and hit in the halls.

— Chantel

I'm glad we all made it!!!

— Unknown

I feel like a little ant in a bunch of elephants, just being squished and batted around. I don't mind!!!

— Lisa

I get treated with more respect and freedom now.

— Derek

They don't think of you as little kids in the High School . . . you can even go up town for lunch.

8th GRADE

I'm sure high school will be a cinch.
Watch and see if I ever flinch!
I'll keep my cool
While I'm in school
And fret when I get home.
My future looks busy
With homework and friends,
But I'll stay ahead
And make some amends.
"Good-bye eighth grade,"
I say with a sigh.
"I've got to go;
Ninth grade is nigh!"

SOPHOMORES

Surprisingly enough, the sophomores have stayed pretty much out of trouble. There have been a few exceptions, however. Take, for example, John Klipfel who tested Mr. Ranum's authority by making an illegal use of the intercom during school hours. A trip by Mr. Ulmer's history room will show you that they are just like any past Ellendale student, with a constant whisper that drives our teachers nuts.

This is what drugs do to you!

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Nadja DeVillermay

Hi! I'm Nadja. I come from France, well exactly from the French Riviera — It's kind of like California. So you can imagine that when I arrived here, I was very surprised and it was a big change for me. First, the weather is different. We never had less than — -10 degrees F and that was the baddest days! Plus, we have the beach and me and my friends (or every kid) use to go swimming from March to October! Here, no beach but a new life, and a new family. I live with Mary and Russ Pfeifer — they're very kind with me and I consider them more like friends than parents! I also discovered that cowboys didn't exist only in western movies, but I'm still looking for the Indians! I learn a lot by living in a small town, where I live in France is a town called Nice with 600,000 people — A bit smaller than New York but a lot bigger than Ellendale!! I discovered how kids live here, their rules and values which are a lot different than mine. It's been very interesting to be an American girl for a year. Except that I already gained 6 lbs. in 5 months, but it's the only regret for coming to the U.S.! I'd like to thank everybody for being so gentle with me during this year! Merci beaeuopu pour tout ce que bous oveez Fait pour moi T'espere pouvoir revenir een jour.

Nadja.

Tracy Gee

When I was told I was coming to North Dakota I didn't expect to have nearly as much fun as I'm having. I'm staying with the Betting family and I couldn't have asked for a nicer family. I've also made many new friends. I'm really glad to come to Ellendale. Some of my favorite times were skiing for the first time, having Christmas in the middle of the winter, going to Washington D.C. and New York with my host sister, and going to Canada with a group of exchange students. In fact, nearly everything this year has been great fun. I'll never forget what a great year I had as an exchange student.

SENIOR CLASS WILLS

Laura Beringer: I will my ability to drink non-diet pop to Dana Sundby, in hopes that someday she'll realize it's not good for her.

Stacey Burkhardt: I, Stacey Burkhardt, of sound body and mind, will to Dorothy Oliver my ability to stay awake during a movie and have fun in Verona.

Rick Christenson: With a sound mind . . . I think, and a great body, will my ability to hunt coon . . . Legally, to some people of the class of 88. I will my good looks to many who need it.

Vicky Deide: I, Vicky Deide, being of sound mind and able body, will my ability to dance to Pat Sand. To Jason Eberle, I will my ability to go out with people my own age.

John Flynn: I, John Flynn, will my ability to make it through the A.C.T. test without throwing up to Derrick Miller.

Kevin Gall: With my insane mind and unhealthy body, I will my yearly cold to David Carlson so he will be unable to use the telephone.

Jim Grueneich: I, Jim Grueneich, will my ability to party to Dean Zimmerman in hopes his parents will let him out of the house long enough to take advantage of it.

Melissa Haase: I, Melissa Haase, will my ability to drive the speed limit to Brian Sears in hopes that someday he'll lose some of the lead in his foot.

Kim Hasz: I, Kim Hasz, of sound mind and sound body, will my ability to get hit by a girl to Lisa Kessler in hopes that she won't.

Leslie Hehr: I, Leslie Hehr, being of sound mind and body, will my Def Leppard 'Hysteria' tape to Iris Nishek, who is the only one who can become 'excitable'!

Lisa Hiepler: I, Lisa Hiepler, will my natural ability to Jeffrey Shuert in hopes that someday he will fail a Trigonometry test and not be able to show it off.

Tammy Hoffman: I, Tammy Hoffman, will Deb Werre my ability to not foul out within two minutes and Heidi Moore my ability to drive a stick shift.

Lisa Kessler: I, Lisa Kessler, will to Deb Werre my ability to drive down mainstreet in Aberdeen and stay off the sidewalk. Also, to whoever get my #20 basketball uniform, to keep it all year, cuz I never did.

Brent Kosel: I, Brent Kosel, being of outrageous mind and muscular body, will my hair to Jeffery Shuert.

Billy Michaelsohn: I will my driving ability to Brian Sears.

Heidi Moore: I, Heidi Moore, being of sound mind, will all my luck to Tanya Zahn in hopes that she will achieve her dream and my ability to hold my "coke" to Diana Catlette.

Meri Paschke: I, Meri Paschke, of unstable mind and body, will the ability to grow long fingernails to Tanya Zahn so that she will stop complaining about mine.

Mary Ellen Rall: I, Mary Ellen Rall, will my ability to drive 55 to Tyson Johnson in hopes that someday he will be able to.

Troy Rodlund: I, Troy Rodlund, of superior mind, will my ability to run over 30 seconds without getting tired to Brent Buchholz in the hopes he will make it through sports.

Kristi Schnabel: I, Kristi Schnabel, of no mind and incredibly mangled body, will to Troy Rodlund my vast knowledge of POD material.

Brian Sears: I, Brian Sears, will my ability to match clothes to Troy Rodlund.

Amy Shuert: I, Amy Shuert, of half sound mind, will my sense of direction to Diana Catlette, in hopes that she will never again shoot at the opponents basket.

Jeffrey Thorpe: I will what running ability I have to my Big, Little brother, Wally, in hopes he will run hard in practice.

"There's been a terrible accident!"

"Hey man, we're seniors!"

"Help!"

"I don't know what to do with her!"

Alot of hustle and ability made up for the size of the 88 cardinals. Seven seniors led the team as next year another 6 seniors will be leading the cardinals. Although, the cards were serious on the court sometimes they could find a way of breakin the tension. As displayed in the illustration this therefore, is true.

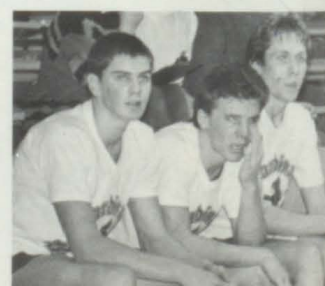

Captains Kevin and Brad.

WRESTLING

"The look of Success!"

Captains: John Flynn and Todd Tatum

This year the Wrestling program had a very good season under the coaching of Rick Ulmer. Not only did Mr. Ulmer provide a good leadership but this year there were eight seniors that also helped the younger wrestlers to have an Awesome year. This year we had 5 state qualifiers, of that Todd placed 1st, John F. placed 2nd, and John K. placed 5th. Overall the team placed 4th at the tournament. The wrestlers placed very well at a lot of the other tournaments. Good Job Guys!!

GOLFING IN '88

The golf team had an overall good season. They placed 4th at Conference, 2nd at the Linton Invitational and 8th at regionals, missing state qualification by only 5 strokes. The senior leadership was outstanding led by James Wedell, Jim Greunich and Aaron Ellingson. Stuart Wedell was most improved and Aaron Ellingson was most valuable and James Wedell was most consistent.

Kim Hasz led the girls by being most valuable and Deb Werre was voted most improved. The seniors will definitely be missed.

Most Valuable?!?!?!?

Heidi Moore, Kim Hasz, Aaron Ellingson, Brent Buchholtz, James Wedell, Stuart Wedell, Jason Eberle, Brent Kosel, Coach Mike Nygaard.

ANNUAL STAFF

It takes many students willing to spend long hours so that all of us can relive past school years every time we look at our school yearbook. On the far left we have our editor, Meri Paschke, then our assistant editor, Lisa Kessler, and the junior editor, Christy Klipfel. Next to them are Jim Grueneich and Tanya Zahn the Business managers who have to work hard to gain the financial support from the community so that the Redbird can be printed. This year's head photographer was James Wedell. A big thanks to Meri who put much time and work into this year's annual, and also to Mrs. Kuck as she added the necessary pressure and organization to get the job done. THANKS!!! from the annual staff.

MUSIC CONTEST

This year we had many small groups participating in small group contest. All were satisfactory, many were honorable mentions and a select few were given stars and sent off to state. Everyone who went said that state was fun as well as educational. A few students were even asked to be in the honors concert. State went well this year and was enjoyed by all who were selected to attend.

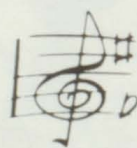

Mark Billey, Tom Johnson, Heff Shuert, Brad Kingsriter, Aaron Ellingson, James Wedell, Dale Zink, Kevin Gall. 'The Singing Studs!' boys' large group.

DRILLTEAM 87-88

Perseverance, hard work, and long hours paid off again for the Cardettes. They captured the first place trophy in the novelties division and second place in the dance/drill. It seemed strange to do those routines for the last time at their spring program. The Cardette's would like to thank the Cardette Guys for participating in the Guy/Girl routine that was done to Old Time Rock-N-Roll.

Seniors: Meri, Lisa, Capt. Vicky and Capt. Laura.

PROM '88

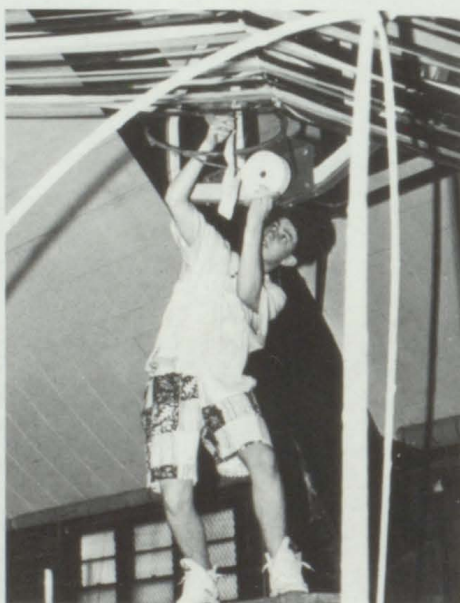

This year Prom pages are different from years before. It was decided to have the pictures of the decorating included. This year's prom was very successful, there were a total of 43 couples for the grand march. Two themes were used this year, "IN MY DREAMS!" and "WHY CAN'T THIS NIGHT GO ON FOREVER!" The juniors spent many long hours putting together a very enjoyable prom for the seniors.
